

ASP

The children at Bridge Site have started their drama lessons. They do it additionally to the session they have with their class. It provides a nice little window for them have some fun while learning how to express themselves imaginatively.