13th June 2022

Welcome to our 21st 'BE PROACTIVE' attendance update for the year!

Every week you will receive some top PROACTIVE tips & attendance updates from across the school.

HEADTEACHER HOTSPOT

I hope everyone had a relaxing half term.

Please do remember that if your child is off absent, you must inform the school, whatever, the reason may be.

If we have no contact from a parent, we do have to report that a child is missing from education.

At Woodside we want to work with our parents, therefore giving different options to report an absence for the convenience of all. Please see below.

Top Tips

YOU GOTTA
NOURISH
TO FLOURISH

We would like to remind parents again this update that children should be brought to school on time, the first 15 minutes of the day are crucial for our children to be equipped for the day.

To report a pupil as absent please leave a pupil absence message on the correct site messaging service. You can also call in and connect to the relevant site for your child, please do this before the start of the school day as it makes it a lot easier when recording absence.
